EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- Professor (52% research, 48% teaching) July 2002 to present
Department of Agricultural Economics, Mississippi State University
Specialty Areas: Production Economics; Livestock Production and Marketing; Agricultural Finance.
Courses Taught: Farm Financial Management
Introduction to Agricultural Economics
- Associate Professor (52% research, 48% teaching) July 1995 to June 2002
Department of Agricultural Economics, Mississippi State University
Specialty Areas: Production Economics; Livestock Production and Marketing; Agricultural Finance.
Courses Taught: Agricultural Production Economic Theory
Farm Financial Management
Introduction to Agricultural Economics
Agricultural Finance
Veterinary Economics
- Special Topics
Courses: Managing Goal Achievement
Issues in Ag. Lending
- Assistant Professor (80% research, 20% teaching) August 1990 to June 1995
Department of Agricultural Economics, Mississippi State University
Specialty Areas: Agricultural Finance; Production economics; Livestock Production and Marketing.
Courses Taught: Agricultural Production Economic Theory
Agricultural Finance
- Graduate Research Assistant August 1986 to August 1990
Department of Agricultural Economics, Oklahoma State University
Conducted livestock-related research.
- Research Assistant December 1984 to July 1986
Department of Agricultural Economics, North Dakota State University
Conducted livestock-related research.
- Graduate Teaching Assistant January 1984 to May 1984
Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Illinois
Assisted with Farm Management and Agricultural Statistics.
- Graduate Research Assistant November 1982 to December 1983
Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Illinois

Estimated potential effects of replacing farm and residential property taxes with an increased state income tax in Illinois.

Bank Teller May 1981 to August 1981

First National Bank of Socorro, Socorro, NM
Reconciled tellers' statements, balanced vault cash

Livestock and Crop Management February 1975 to August 1982

Independent Farming, Socorro, NM
Farrow-to-finish hog operation, cow-calf operation, forage production.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy in Agricultural Economics December 1990

Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, OK
Major Professor: Dr. Odell L. Walker

Dissertation: "Economic Analysis of Alternative Cattle Breeding Systems with Retained Ownership Through The Stocker and Feeder Phases"

Specialty Areas: Production Economics, Farm Management, Risk Management.

GPA: 3.74, 79 Hours (A=4.0)

Master of Science in Agricultural Economics May 1985

University of Illinois, Urbana, IL
Major Professor: Dr. Lyle P. Fettig

Thesis: "Replacing the Farm and Residential Property Tax with an Increased State Income Tax: A Simulation Analysis"

GPA: 4.208, 8 Units (A=5.0)

Bachelor of Science in Agribusiness Management May 1982

New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, NM
Advisor: Dr. Martin Blake

GPA: 3.142, 146 Hours (A=4.0)

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Completed training for FINPACK, a comprehensive whole farm financial planning and analysis system

Participated in "Class 8" of the ESCOP/ACOP "Preparing for Leadership in the Agricultural Research and Higher Education System" Training Program, 1998-1999

Completed Facilitator Training for Goal Coach, a goal setting and achievement program

Completed the Facilitator Training Seminar, Managing Goal Achievement, taught by Integrity Systems

Continuing Education - Courses taken include:

Real Estate Appraisal
Conversational Spanish

Participated in teaching improvement seminars and workshops

ACADEMIC SERVICE

Current: Major Professor for 1 M.S. student
Member of academic advisory committee for 2 Ph.D. students
Academic advisor for 16 undergraduate students

Graduate Students Completed: 2 Ph.D.
3 M.S.
10 M.A.B.M.¹

Academic advisor for the Agricultural Economics Club, 1991 to 1998.
Academic advisor for the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity, 1992 to present.
Academic advisor for the Pakistani Student Organization, 1993 to 1997.
Superintendent, Mississippi FFA Farm Business Management Event

Committee Service (selected):

Department of Agricultural Economics
Academic Program and Policy Committee
Tenure and Promotion Committee
Staff and Faculty Awards Committee (Chair)
Graduate Examining Committee
Student Activities Committee
Department Publications Committee
Numerous ad hoc committees

College of Agriculture and Life Sciences
Committee for Excellence in Teaching (Chair 1997-98)
Scholarship Committee
CALS Committee on Courses and Curricula

Division of Agriculture, Forestry, and Veterinary Medicine
Financial Management Priority Planning Group (Co-Chair)
Integrated Resource Management (IRM) Planning Committee

Mississippi State University
Committee on Courses and Curricula
University Instructional Improvement Committee

Other:

Member, Board of Directors, Southern Agricultural Economics Association,
2003 to present
Robert Holland Faculty Senate, Mississippi State University, 2002 to present
Member, Mississippi AgrAbility Advisory Committee, 2001 to present

¹M.A.B.M. denotes Masters of Agribusiness Management

Conducted group dynamics workshops, using the "Acid River Game," at the 1995 Adventures in Engineering Program, University of Alabama - Huntsville, July 31, 1995, and at the 1994 Junior Beef Leadership Conference, Mississippi Junior Cattlemen's Association, June 27, 1994.

GRANTSMANSHIP

"FINPACK: A Computerized Farm Financial Planning and Analysis System"

Funding Source: Schillig Teaching Project Program, Mississippi State University

Amount funded: $1,400.00

"A Program in Agricultural Credit"

Principal Investigators: Joy Odom and Randall D. Little

Funding Source: USDA - Foreign Agriculture Service

Amount funded: $19,033

"The Role of the Livestock Marketing Cooperative in Southeast Cattle Production."

Principal Investigators: Randall D. Little and Charlie S. Forrest.

Cooperating Investigators: Gary B. Jackson, Michael E. Boyd, W. Blair McKinley, Allen R. Williams, Terry J. Engelken, and Fred D. Lehman

Funding Source: USDA - Rural Business Cooperative Service

Amount funded: $52,222.00

"Cattle Producer Attitudes Toward Alternative Production and Marketing Practices."

Principal Investigators: Randall D. Little and Charlie S. Forrest.

Cooperating Investigators: Gary B. Jackson, Michael E. Boyd, W. Blair McKinley, Allen R. Williams, Terry J. Engelken, and Fred D. Lehman

Funding Source: William M. White Special Project Award Program, Division of Agriculture, Forestry, and Veterinary Medicine, Mississippi State University

Amount funded: $2,500.00

"Reduction of Swine Farm Odors and Total Waste Volume through Modification of Swine Dunging Behavior"

Principal Investigator: Wayne Frank

Cooperating Investigators: T. Burcham, T. Cathcart, R. Little, M. Crenshaw

Special Research Initiative, MAFES

"Economic and Environmental Sustainability of Forage Production Utilizing Swine Lagoon Effluent"

Principal Investigator: Jac J. Varco

Cooperating Investigators: T.N. Burcham, J. Tomlinson, F. Whisler, and R.D. Little

Funding Source: Animal Waste Management Initiative,
Environmental Quality/Water Quality Research Program,
Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station

Amount funded: $163,178

"Reduction in P-Based Land Requirements by Incorporating Dephytized
Corn in Swine Diets"

Principal Investigator: Howard W. Miller

Cooperating Investigators: T.N. Burcham, R.D. Little, J. Pote, and
T.G. Althen

Funding Source: Animal Waste Management Initiative,
Environmental Quality/Water Quality Research Program,
Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station

Amount funded: $96,900
